Colorful Spaces

Saluda Maintenance working on making things more beautiful in their county. Shown in the photos are: Franklan Highley, Chad Robertson, Calvin Berry, Charles Long, Brad Coleman, Sonya Hurt and BettyAnn Derrick.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to James Worden of McCormick Maintenance who was seriously injured in a Work Zone Accident on May 6. Worden is a dedicated employee with 26 years of service. Please continue to keep Worden and his family in your prayers.

MEET SONJA CRENSHAW

Name: Sonja Crenshaw
Title: Administrative Specialist II

Sonja started work with SCDOT as an assistant Shop Clerk in the Greenwood Maintenance Shop in December of 1994 and transferred as an Administrative Specialist II to the District Two District Office in July of 1997.

Sonja has a Bachelor of Music in Music Education with an emphasis in French Horn earned in 1976 from Iowa State University and a Master of Music degree in French Horn performance earned in 1980 from the University of Northern Iowa.

In her "spare time," Sonja plays professionally in the Greater Anderson Musical Arts Consortium (GAMAC) orchestra as the principal horn, and as a hornist with the Emerald City Brass, the Lander University Wind Ensemble and the Lander University Woodwind Quintet. She also freelances as a hornist with her husband, Ray, who is also a horn player.

For the past year (2004-2005), Sonja was an Adjunct Professor of Horn with Lander University and she has her own private studio in which she teaches aspiring young horn students.

Sonja is a veteran of the Air Force and of the Air Force National Guard as a military musician. She is married to James Ray Crenshaw and has two sons, Dennis—a rising sophomore at the College of Charleston and David—a rising senior at Greenwood High School.
